We invite you and your outing to experience 36 holes of Pete Dye Championship golf at Eagle Creek Golf Club. Golf Digest Magazine consistently ranks Eagle Creek Golf Club amongst the best public golf facilities in Indiana. Eagle Creek Golf Club also served as host for the prestigious USGA Public Links Championship in 1982. Our reputation as the industry leader in golf outings and special events is unrivaled in the Central Indiana area. Choose from our player friendly "Pines" course or the more scenic and challenging "Sycamore" course. Discover the essence of "pure golf" that adds exciting variety to this Championship caliber course. Your outing or event can enjoy the comforts of our new indoor Conference Center and Banquet Room located directly behind the clubhouse. This pavilion seats up to 240 people and can be utilized for your banquet and awards ceremony. Our outing packages cater to both small groups and large corporate events with all the amenities to make your event a success. Our professional staff will ensure that every aspect of your day will be worry free, relaxing and enjoyable. Treat your players to a memorable experience at one of the premier golf destinations in the Midwest.

The Pines Course

With a Player Friendly back nine, this 6976 yard links-style course has long fairways lined with heather grass.

The Sycamore Course

This challenging 6646 yard links-style course has hilly terrain, tree-lined fairways and picturesque views.
